The County Paper.

SUBSCRIPTION $2.00 PER YEAR—ALWAYS IN ADVANCE.

THIRTY-SEVENTH YEAR, NO. 21.

$5,000 IMPROVEMENTS TO LOCAL TEL. OFFICE—NEW SWITCHBOARD RECEIVED

Increasing Switchboard By 160 Additional Phones—Since First of Year 20 New Phone Subscribers to New Residents.

The Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company is expending approximately $5,000 in Bay St. Louis this month on the installation of equipment in the exchange office in the Echo Bldg., J. J. Wood, manager of the local office, stated. The new equipment, includes another section of the switchboard which will add the additional positions on the board and make the local switchboard a nine-position board. This will increase the new numbers on the board by 160 and will give the office the necessary equipment for expansion and growth of the resident population of the Bay, Mr. Wood said.

Not only is the additional section being installed but the office is being rearranged, one partition having been taken down and various changes for the improvement of the service instituted. The switchboard is being moved to the additional section.

The work on the office began the first of May and is progressing well, and will be completed about the first of June. W. G. Cavel, of Jackson, with two assistants is installing the equipment.

Mr. Wood is much pleased to have this new equipment in the office in that he sees in the new equipment a better opportunity to give efficient service to the subscribers.

During the present month eight new phones have been installed in the city of Bay St. Louis and a total of 20 have been gained by the local office since the first of the year, this increase being due almost entirely to new residents, Mr. Wood said.

OLE MISS. TO BE REJUVENATED BY STATE FUNDS

Conditions at State University Ideal—"Clean Ticket" Means Something.

"I found more study going on at the University of Mississippi at my recent visit than I have ever found in progress at any college or university I have visited," George R. Rea, of Bay St. Louis, national treasurer of the Kappa Sigma fraternity, stated upon his return from Oxford last week, where he had paid an official visit to the Kappa Sigma chapter of the University. Mr. Rea added that there were 107 members of Kappa Sigma in the United States and that he had visited more than half of these.

"An unusual spirit prevails at the University," along the student body due in large part to the happiness over the $1,600,000 appropriation which the legislature has made for the school," he said. This appropriation is to be expended for permanent improvements and erection of buildings including the hospital, dormitories, graduate school, gymnasium, power plant, chemistry building, building and training school. All roads on the campus are to be paved with widespread approval among the students. Last week when Mr. Rea was in Oxford he found no rain and much dust and sees in the roadways a great convenience.

Mr. Rea thinks that much of the improvement allowing for the new buildings and improvements is due to the attempt to make the University to Jackson and believes that the result will result to the University in every respect from the improvements. He thinks it will double the student body for their care. He is especially pleased over the social conditions found to prevail at the University. He explained the system by which students are judged eligible to social activities. When a boy arrives at the University he is given a "clean ticket" which admits him to the dances, parties and other entertainments and as long as he conducts himself as befitting a gentleman he continues to hold this clean ticket, but at the first misconduct on the part of the student the ticket is withdrawn and from then on through his college career the boy is not permitted the freedom of the social life. He likes the method in which the women students of the University are protected through an adequate chaperonage, and through the carefulness with which the boys are interested to protect the honor of the school. Mr. Rea stated that he was so pleased with conditions affecting women students that he expected to have his niece, Miss Elizabeth Rea, of Wesson, a graduate of this year, attend the University.

Speaks on "Real Heroism"—Collegians Confirmed—Swimming Season Here.

General News.
Monday, May 21, the student body was agreeably surprised when Bishop Gerow visited them, and gave an interesting talk on "real heroism." He told us never to fear public criticism; that true heroes were not those who could face bullets, but those who were able to do what was right, even in the face of public ridicule. As an example he mentioned the celebrated case of Daniel O'Connor, who refused to fight a second duel, knowing that his refusal would cause him to be suspected of cowardice. All the college boys were interested in his lecture and would like to hear him speak again.

The swimming season that we have been anxiously awaiting has at last arrived. Last Thursday, May 17, we had our first plunge, which was enjoyed by all. Owing to athletics, the senior division takes its dip after May Devotions which end at 4:45, while the small boys go in swimming at the usual time, immediately after school is dismissed.

The "Star Boy" picnic scheduled for Wednesday, May 16, was postponed on account of inclement weather. Brother Cyril has arranged for it to be held on May 24 and has decided on Lakeshore as the ideal place.

Double Bill Next Sunday.
Next Sunday, May 27th, Coach Perkins will have his hands full. The first thing on the program Sunday evening, will be a contest with the Kila. They have a splendid outfit this year and the Backwash outfields expect much foot work.

The second event on the list will be another good game. The Algiers baseball team have one of the best semi-pro teams in New Orleans and are coming over with a splendid outfit to play the Backwash. The Backwash will be playing the Algiers at 8 o'clock.

This Friday Evening For Graduation—Lt. Gov. Will Also Make Presentations.

Lieutenant Governor Bidwell Adam of Pass Christian, will address the Friday night, 8 o'clock, at the central High School auditorium when the excellent class of students will receive their diplomas and the 1927-28 session of the local public school will close.

The commencement exercises of Bay High School began Sunday with an address by Dr. McBride, head of the Graduate School of Tulane University, and was enjoyed by a good sized crowd who braved the storm to hear him. His address was a masterpiece of literature.

Exercises took place Thursday, May 24, at 8 o'clock when the grammar grades rendered a program.

Friday night in addition to the awarding of diplomas and certificates, there will be a number of beautiful medals and awards to different students in the various departments of school work. The Horton Cup will be awarded to the boy or girl in high school who shows the best spirit of co-operation, taking part in outside activities and scholarship. The school is able to offer this through the generosity of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Horton. The following persons are eligible under the ruling and have been named by the different teachers for consideration in the awarding of the cup: Norma Gex, Seals Spear, Helen Chisham, Lois de Armas, Laurin Gex, Barbara Sisk, Nolan Lader, Irma Koch, Katie Watts, Miriam Summersgill.

The school will also present a medal given by the Merchants Bank and Trust Company for expression, one by the Hancock County Bank for declamation, one by the Bay St. Louis Shubert Music club for music, one for the best work in English through the sixth, seventh and eighth grades, also one in history in the same grades given by the local jeweler, Mr. Frank Mann. There will be presented a medal given by the Interstate Bank and Trust Co. of New Orleans, to the student in the senior class for writing the best paper on "Is Flood Control an Immediate Necessity" and a National Geographic Society medal for the best paper on the life and work of Abraham Lincoln will be awarded. To the students in the commercial department showing the best progress in their work will be given pins and certificates for proficiency in their work.

Thanks For Co-Operation.
This will be our last news item for our school for this session, we desire to express our appreciation to all those who have aided us in this year's work in making it the best year in the history of our school. The school is especially indebted to the members of our Central Parent-Teacher association for their helpful co-operation and assistance throughout the session. We are also indebted to our Board of Trustees, which so generously made provision for the special department in school this year. We desire to express our appreciation to the Mayor and Common Council for their co-operation in every way during this session. We wish to thank the authorities and all connected with St. Stanislaus college, for their co-operation and help during this year. Last, but not least, we desire to express appreciation to Mr. Chas. G. Moreau for giving us space in his valuable paper for our school notes and with this addition we bid him adieu for a short time, but promise you that we will be back with you with some more notes in the opening week in September.

The junior class gave the seniors a moonlight truck ride and beach party Saturday night. This was one of the most enjoyable parties of the senior social calendar. After riding around while the happy crowd built a bon fire on a beach, just across the bridge and roasted wienies and drank pop. Everyone had a marvelous time, except when they remembered that it would be the last year that the seniors will be in school. But some of them may meet again, and be juniors and seniors in college together.

First Meeting With That Object in Hand Monday Afternoon—Splendid Work.

The Bay St. Louis King's Daughters are much interested in the organization of an emergency clinic and held the first meeting to plan for such a clinic Monday afternoon. While definite plans have not been perfected yet a number of ideas have been proposed and several steps carried out, including the securing of a place for the clinic, namely the upstairs of Dr. D. H. Ward's office building which he has kindly consented to let to the local organization free of rent and which will lend itself well to the purpose in hand. The ladies plan to have beds or cots in this clinic where accident cases, for example, may be brought, and where any emergency illness may be treated.

A small room for emergency operations and dressings will be equipped, also, it was said. The clinic will be used for general calls of an emergency nature, the ladies said. More specific work of arranging for the clinic will be done at the next meeting.

Alice Joyce in New "Sorrell" Film at A. & G. Theater.

Alice Joyce, for years one of the most popular actresses in motion pictures, plays the role of "Fanny Gardiner" in Herbert Brenon's production of "Sorrell and Son" at the A. & G. Theater Sunday and Monday.

Miss Joyce's sympathetic portrayal is declared by director Brenon to be the finest of her screen career. Alice Joyce was born and educated in Kansas City, Missouri, and started to make her living as a telephone operator. Her beauty and personality attracted the attention of motion picture executives and she was offered a chance to act with the Vitaphone company. Although still in her early teens, she soon became a star and an outstanding favorite with fans in several countries.

Since the Vitaphone days, Miss Joyce has starred and played opposite leading masculine stars in scores of pictures. She has been featured during most of her career in recent years.

In addition to "Sorrell and Son," in which she is cast with H. B. Warner, Anna Q. Nilsson, Neilson, Astor, Carol Myers, Norman Trevor, Mary Nolan, Louie McKim, Lionel Belmore, Mickey McBan and other notable players, some of Miss Joyce's best known pictures include "Stella Dallas," "The Little French Girl," "Mannequin," "Dancing Mothers," and "Beau Geste."

She is a devotee of out-of-door sports, a lover of good books and a student of flower culture. She is five feet, seven inches in height and weighs 120 pounds. Miss Joyce has brown hair and hazel eyes.

STOCKING FISH FOR HANCOCK

Local Water Receive 7,500 Minnows From Government Hatchery.

A total of 7,500 minnows of large mouthed bass commonly known as green trout, were planted in Bayou Philip a short time ago, the small fish having been received by Jos. O. Mauffray placed the fish in the water. The fish which were three days old and measured about three-fourths of an inch in length were sent by the government from the fish hatchery at Tupelo.

This is the second year in which young fish have been placed in the waters of Hancock county to stock the fishing streams. Last year 5,000 were placed in the upper tributaries of Jordan river, these having been assigned to Harry Saucier and placed in the waters by him, Fred Wright and others.

The fish from the hatcheries will survive in the proportion of about 50 or 60 per cent. Government surveys say that the first year they will add about 1 1/2 inches of growth and each year after that will grow in a grow proportionately in size. The purpose of stocking the fishing streams with young fish is to keep the waters constantly supplied with plenty of game fish.

ROTARIANS HEAR G. E. TEMPLET IN TALK ON SERVICE

Speaks Eloquently and Says Service Biggest Element in Business World Today.

Preceding President-elect Jos. O. Mauffray who delivered a fascinating address, with Hub Canty, Pascagoula, and Fishing as his subject, G. E. Templet was the principal speaker of Rotary club luncheon Wednesday, May 23. Mr. Templet was his theme, "Service is the basis of success." His remarks were brief, but masterly and carried. Delivered in true oratorical form, the address was well received and unanimous applause followed.

Mr. Templet said: "I believe the only sound and sure construction of success as an individual or an institution, depends on the quantity and quality of service rendered."

"We neither anticipate nor hope to be unusually favored by fortune but am thoroughly persuaded that fortune favors the performer of worthy deeds and of unusual service and therefore determine that our days and our years be occupied by such performance."

"Quality shall always be the first element of our service and quantity shall ever be the second consideration."

"Thus shall we establish not only the reputation but the character of serving best and serving most. Therefore, by serving admirably, we shall deserve and receive proportionately, the basis of all success is service in terms of service rendered to our fellowmen."

"Service is unquestionably the biggest element in the business world today. It has more to do with the making or unmaking of a man, a nation or a nation than any one thing in business. Service should be the aim of both capital and labor."

"The big fight today is not between capital and labor, but between the constructive and destructive forces working within and between these two groups. One trying to build up and deliver a bigger and better service, and the other trying to tear down."

"There are two ways of rendering service. One is the right way, the other is the wrong way and becomes permanent. Success may follow the wrong way temporarily, but failure is sure to be the result."

"All human beings are dependent on one another for a living. Hence, service is the backbone of all human relationship. And harmony is the track upon which all efforts to serve should run."

BAY INDIAN STRIKES OIL NOW RICH

STRIKES OIL AND MONTHLY ROYALTIES

Average Income $3,000 Per Month—Motored Down With Family.

An interesting visitor to the Bay for the past two weeks is a former resident, W. J. (Bill) Favre, a Choctaw Indian, who is here from his home near Ardmore, Okla., with his wife and two daughters, aged 10 and 12 years, and his wife's mother, visiting his brother, Dave Favre, and family. Mr. Favre formerly resided at Bayou LaCatox at the Indian settlement. He left the Coast in 1902 with a man named Tippit and went to Oklahoma and returned to the Coast the next year, then in 1907 he went back west. He was married to a full-blooded Choctaw Indian woman, a native Mississippian, July 4, 1908. She was given 220 acres as a homestead by the government near Ardmore, Okla., and Mr. Favre and wife lived there until a few years ago. Mr. Favre later purchased 230 acres in the same neighborhood.

Oil was discovered in 1920 on 100 acres of the land which Mrs. Favre had gotten from the government, and the Amarda Petroleum Company has drilled 26 wells on this plot. Mr. Favre's average income from the oil on his place is $3,000 per month.

Several years ago Mr. Favre moved from the oil producing land and purchased 120 acres of land three miles from his holding, about 10 miles from Ardmore. Here he has built a fine home with barns and garages, the buildings costing about $8,000, he said. He is growing some stock, horses, mules, cows and hogs and does some farming there.

He motored to the Coast in a Buick car with his family, his Indian chauffeur doing the driving. They came via Shreveport, Vicksburg and Jackson and made the trip of 800 miles in 2 1/2 days. He will leave Sunday for the return trip home going via Baton Rouge.

In discussing the Coast Mr. Favre said that it does not look like it did when he made his home here, that so much change had taken place, even the roads and trails seeming different. He prefers to stay on the Coast rather than reside here, he said, but plans to come again next year for a visit.

Rotary Helping Humanity.

The Bay St. Louis Rotary Club at its last meeting decided to finance the going to a summer health camp of two worthy Bay children at the request of Dr. Cy Shipp, health officer for the county. These two children are Ernest and Alger Netto, aged 11 and 12 years, who are from a tubercular family but neither of whom has tuberculosis, but rather are malnourished and underweight and a month in an outdoor summer health camp will aid materially from a physical point of view. They will be sent to the health camp at Sanatorium for the month of June. This camp to which they will be sent is maintained especially for children who are malnourished but who have had all physical defects corrected and whose parents are unable to finance their stay. The two boys chosen to be sent from the Bay by the Rotary club have both had their tonsils removed and all necessary physical defects remedied.

The Bay Rotary club will defray the expenses of these two boys which will amount to about $70, and thus do a fine piece of civic health and child work.

COLORED HOLD HOME IMPROVEMENT EXHIBIT

Home Demonstration Department of Hancock County Has Unusual Feature Display.

The Home Improvement Exhibit held May 12th at Waveland proved quite a success. The display featured an improved bed room, dining room, kitchen and an egg exhibit.

The bedroom set was an old style, worn and stained oak set, converted into a modern ivory set by the use of a saw, paint, transfer and designs, unbleached curtains, scarves and a bedspread made up the linens. A braided rug, a smoking stand and a dressing table were made and added. The dining room consisted of an old 30-year-old table unpainted and six mismatched chairs, which were soon changed into a pretty softgreen set with a buffet added which was made from an old dresser. Curtains were of buff trimmed in green, a beautiful serving tray made from a picture frame was added and a buff and green linoleum covered the floor. The kitchen was done in white and carried with it all attractions, conveniences and comforts any one would wish. It carried out the motto adopted by the club when the campaign was launched, "Take what you have and make what you want."

Imagine a kitchen cabinet made from an old wash stand, and a stool made from its remnants. To encourage the use and value of poultry and stress the value of eggs in the diet a display on the preparation of eggs aroused quite a bit of interest. The display featured eggs prepared in seven ways beside boiling and frying.

Special displays were also prepared by Joseph Antoine and are as follows: a work box, kitchen stool, flower stand, broom rack and shoe shine box.

In connection with the exhibit two programs were rendered. The programs were made up of lectures on home improvement and community songs.

The speakers were as follows: Rev. Gillad, in charge agricultural work; Gulfside; Mrs. Goins, teacher; Gulfside school; pastor of the A. M. E. church, Mr. Richardson, and Willie Washington, of Waveland.

G. E. TEMPLET IS GIVER OF PRIZE FOR LOCAL ROTARY CLUB

Gus E. Templet, Bay St. Louis citizen, backs his enterprise and generosity to a most substantial status. This was manifested again at the Bay St. Louis Rotary club meeting when he offered to give a gold Rotary emblem pin, to the member who, beginning July 1st, would, during the year, score 100 per cent attendance.

If more than one member made similar score then, he suggested, the drawing of straws would serve as deciding factor. A Rotarian sitting opposite Mr. Templet, was about to volunteer the donation of a similar button as a second incentive prize, but silently withdrew his intention when "Gus" further announced the pin would be studded with a genuine diamond! Mr. Templet, actively interested and connected with every public move calculated to benefit this section, has made a similar offer to the Pass Christian club, to which he is a frequent fellow-member.

NEW COURTHOUSE AND JAIL FOR CITY OF NEW ORLEANS

Commission Council to Build $1,750,000 Criminal Courts and Jail Buildings.

The present site of the House of Detention at New Orleans is the main selection of the municipal Commission Council as the ideal location upon which will be constructed the new $1,750,000 Criminal Courts and Jail buildings.

The decision on the site was reached at a meeting of the body last Wednesday.

Picking of the location for the new buildings gives the project impetus and opens the way for an early realization by New Orleans of one of the greatest of its public needs, as the present structures housing these legal parts of the city's life are totally inadequate and inefficient to care for the proper functions of the courts.

REMOVES SCORCH MARKS. If you scorch garments when ironing, just remember to lay the scorched part in the strong sunlight, and the discoloration will soon disappear.

WHEN LOCKS WON'T UNLOCK. Often the out-of-order lock only needs a little oil to put it in a good humor again. Instead of pouring it into the lock, however—just dip the key in oil.

BORAX REMOVES COFFEE STAINS. To remove old stains of chocolate, cocoa, coffee and tea, moisten the spot with cold water, rub with borax and let stand for a few minutes. Rinse with boiling water.

FOR THE SMALL ROOM. Hang a large mirror at one end of the very small room and you will greatly increase the room's size. Place a small mirror on the wall opposite the large mirror and the room will seem twice as large.

A small mirror on the wall opposite the large mirror will also make the room seem larger.

Meeting This Evening

BAY ST. LOUIS REPRESENTED AT K. C. CONVENTION

Eleven councils of Knights of Columbus over the State of Mississippi attended the State annual convention at Natchez on Sunday and Monday, Bay St. Louis represented by Grand Knights A. G. Favre and Delegate Arthur A. Seaford.

Mayor S. H. Laub welcomed the delegates and visitors on behalf of Natchez, and R. A. Klein, grand knight, extended a welcome in behalf of the Knights of Columbus of the host council. The response was by J. J. Ducote, state secretary.

Knights Enjoy Capitol Excursion. Many of the delegates reached Natchez on Saturday evening and enjoyed the moonlight excursion of the steamer Capitol on the Mississippi river.

McKenna Entertains. Delegates and convention committees were guests for dinner Sunday afternoon of Thomas A. McKenna, state deputy. This was given at the Eola hotel and proved a delightful added feature.

Banquet Brilliant Social Affair. The crowning event on the program of entertainment features for the Knights of Columbus State convention was the banquet on the top floor of the new Eola Hotel Sunday night.

Knights of Columbus had as their guests many visitors from throughout Mississippi, and from other states. The course banquet was interspersed with a delightful program of music and addresses, the whole rounding out a very enjoyable evening.

At one long table extending across the east end of the dining room were seated the state officers, clergy and speakers. C. C. Goetz was toastmaster.

Thos. A. McKenna gave a very interesting account of the history of the Knights of Columbus, showing how the order began in the United States and Canada, and outlining the principles, aims and objects in its service for God and country.

"What the Catholic Church is Doing in Boy Activities," was the subject presented very graphically and interestingly by John P. Kennedy, chairman of the boys' work committee of the local Knights of Columbus council.

Jas. H. Glennon, state deputy for Alabama, who claims that Natchez is his second home, made a very entertaining talk.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Gerow and his mother graced the banquet by their presence, the Bishop extending greetings in the name of the clergy of St. Mary's Cathedral.

The invocation was by Rev. P. J. Ahern, pastor of St. Mary's, and the benediction by Rev. John McNamara. Grand Knight A. G. Favre, of Bay St. Louis, reports the convention an outstanding affair, complimenting the city of Natchez and its good people for attention and every courtesy possible.

Officers elected for the new year: Thos. A. McKenna, Natchez, State Deputy; J. J. Ducote, Gulfport, State Secretary; G. O. Korndorffer, Natchez, State Treasurer; R. F. Evans, Vicksburg, State Advocate; J. Ross, Pascagoula, State Warden; Rev. R. O. Gerow, Natchez, State Captain.

DR. J. H. SPENCE CANDIDATE AT PASS FOR RE-ELECTION

Well-Known Chief Executive of Sister City Wishes to Serve One More Term.

Dr. Jas. H. Spence, who has served the good people of our sister city across the bay as their chief executive for three consecutive terms, is an announced candidate for re-election, and solicits, at least, one more term.

From his past and present record it would appear the people of Pass Christian would find it a good investment to not only re-elect their wide-awake and progressive mayor, one more term, but many more to follow. Under his administration we have seen "the Pass" flourish from a staid and lucidly stagnant town to a flourishing and progressive city, with all metropolitan improvements befitting and as no sacrifice of the beautiful natural beauty of that place.

Mayor Spence has easily placed Pass Christian on the map, has fostered public improvements into reality and at no detriment to the city's finances. In other words, he has not burdened the people heavily for the which they have generously received.

It is no intention of this newspaper to participate in the canvassing of any candidate for the re-election of Pass Christian, but it is the duty of the press to inform the public of the candidates and their records.

Mirrors of Mississippi By Edgar S. Wilson

Jackson, Miss., May 23.—Hon. J. C. Holton, Commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce, seems to thoroughly understand what that important department was created for, and is assiduously working to get the very best results possible for the agricultural and commercial interests. Through his activity fraudulent sale of cotton seed has been prohibited in Mississippi, and Mississippians will hereafter have no misbranded seed at high or other prices for planting purposes.

Commissioner Holton successfully advocated the passage of a law increasing the standard of commercial fertilizer about fifty per cent, thereby making it impossible for farmers to be imposed upon when they purchase this necessary article. This legislation, when it becomes effective, will almost prohibit the use of a filler, which is mostly made up of sand in the manufacture of commercial fertilizer. It is officially stated that nearly fifty per cent of commercial fertilizers have heretofore contained sand. It is said that the cost of the manufacture of fertilizers is around $9.00 a ton. With this reform, hundreds of thousands of dollars will be saved farmers.

Similar legislation was enacted by the legislature giving the Department of Agriculture and Commerce control of the commercial feed stuff which will make it possible to keep inferior and misbranded grades of feed stuff off the market. The inspectors of the Department of Agriculture and Commerce have been instructed by Commissioner Holton to weigh both feed stuff and fertilizer while on their tours of inspection, and their vigilance already has discovered that many feed stores are putting only 90 pounds in sacks labeled as containing 100 pounds. This discover will give the farmers the full worth of their money as to weights.

Attorney-General Knox has advised Commissioner Holton that where short weights of feed stuff are detected, he is authorized to withdraw such feed from the state and have it resacked so as to conform to the law. For the second offense the full limit of the law will be invoked. Commissioner Holton expects to vigorously enforce this law in the interest of the purchasers of feed. It has been discovered that a feed company in another state has been using sacks containing only 90 pounds of feed, but labeled 100 pounds. Such sacks have been shipped into the state and it is officially stated that a chain of Chinese stores have been selling such feed under the Mississippi label which guarantees 100 pounds.

A bill prepared by Commissioner Holton and enacted by the legislature places condensaries, cheese plants, the short weight of condensed milk or cream under the supervision of the Commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce. Under this law inspectors from the Department of Agriculture and Commerce will visit all milk plants, condensaries and the like and samples to be tested by the Department of Agriculture and Commerce. The result of such inspection will insure the producer full pay for his products.

Commissioner Holton will have ready for distribution some time in June his farmers' bulletin. This bulletin will be widely disseminated, and doubtless prove of great benefit to the farmers of Mississippi. Every farmer who has anything to sell or exchange will be invited to list the same with the Department of Agriculture and Commerce. This innovation in the interest of the Mississippi farmers will be free.

It is the purpose of Commissioner Holton to get in touch with every community in the state and he invites the co-operation of farmers as well as Mississippians engaged in other pursuits to co-operate with him in order that the very best service can be given the people generally. Commissioner Holton is authorized to name an agent in each of the 82 counties to keep the Department informed along all lines of interest in agriculture to the farmers thereof. No compensation is provided for such work. Commissioner Holton feels sure, however, that outstanding farmers in every county will have the patriotism to accept such service.

So much interest is being manifested in the passing of the State Democratic convention which convenes in Jackson, June 5, to select delegates to the Houston convention on June 26, to nominate a candidate for president and vice-president, it is apprehended that the hall of the House of Representatives in the new capitol may first accommodate the crowd and it will be necessary to hold the state convention in the city auditorium where it was held four years ago.

PASS CHRISTIAN From the City Across Bay St. Louis.

Commencement Exercises. St. Joseph's Academy of Pass Christian will close its school session Friday, June 3, 7:30 o'clock, with graduation exercises at the school with Rev. W. J. Leach officiating and delivering the address. There are two graduates this year, William Hursey and Lois Ermingier.

The class play was given Tuesday night of this week at St. Paul's Hall at the school and almost sixty children took part in the exercises. The play presented was "The Gypsy Rover," a musical comedy in three acts. School will close at the Academy June 1, and all exams will begin next week. This has been a most successful session with 240 on roll.

Friday afternoon, June 1, at 6:30 o'clock the Mother's club will entertain the graduates at the convent inviting the mothers and members of the alumni association.

Candidates Plentiful. There is quite a bit of interest across the Bay at Pass Christian among the candidates who are offering themselves for election in July. All of the present officers are asking for re-election to their present positions except A. P. Saucier, the present marshal, who seeks the mayor's position and who is opposed by the present mayor, Dr. J. H. Spence. For city clerk Martin Farrell has no opposition and Eugene Peralto, alderman for third ward, has no opposition. Candidates for tax collector are Leo McDermott and John Loze; alderman at large, Stanley Taylor and Donald McDaniel; alderman for second ward, W. S. Woods, P. A. McCollister and W. J. Hursey; alderman for fourth ward, James Smith, Frank McDonald, Jos. J. Wittman; marshal, Herman Finhold and Robert Peralto.

Sufficient. Once upon an evening dismal I handed her a paroxysmal Kiss, and spoke her name baptismal, Spoke her name—it was Lenore; Ah, she was a scurrilous creature, Glib of tongue and fair of feature, But, alas! I couldn't teach her For she had been there before— And she winked at me and murmured, Murmured the one word: "Encore!" Only that—and nothing more.

TAXES paid by American Railroads

DURING 1927, the steam railroads of the United States paid in State, County and Federal taxes the highest proportion of their revenues ever recorded in any one year.

As shown in the graph above, of every $100.00 received by the carriers during 1927, $6.13 was paid out in taxes; whereas in 1912 but $3.90 from each $100.00 was required for taxes—an increase in the aggregate amount paid of more than $271,000,000.00, or about 247%, during the past 16 years.

In 1912, the daily tax bill of American Railroads was $238,000.00; whereas in 1927, more than $1,000,000.00 a day was paid by the carriers for the support of schools, institutions, governmental expenses and other tax requirements. Again, in 1926, and for the fifth successive year, the taxes paid by the American Railroads exceeded the amount of cash dividends received by their stockholders.

Railway taxes constitute one element in the cost of producing transportation today over which the railroad management has absolutely no control. Over the things that can be measurably controlled, such as economy and efficiency in operation, a remarkable improvement has been made. As an indication, notwithstanding the vastly greater and improved public service rendered by the railroads, they have, since the end of Federal control in 1920, reduced the direct operating costs by more than $1,200,000,000.00, or 20%. Against these economies, however, the railroad taxes—in the same period and without any commensurate increase in the investment—have increased by over $108,000,000.00, or 40%.

More Millions Required To Serve You Better

THE continued growth of the South-eastern States will require an expenditure of more than $27,173,000 this year for additions, extensions and replacements to the Bell Telephone System in this section.

This big construction program follows a gross expenditure of more than $25,275,000 for similar purposes last year.

A substantial share of this investment will be made in Mississippi and it is now estimated that more than 3,500 new telephones will be added in this state during 1928.

These large additions and replacements are a part of our policy of building in advance to keep pace with the anticipated growth and progress of the state.

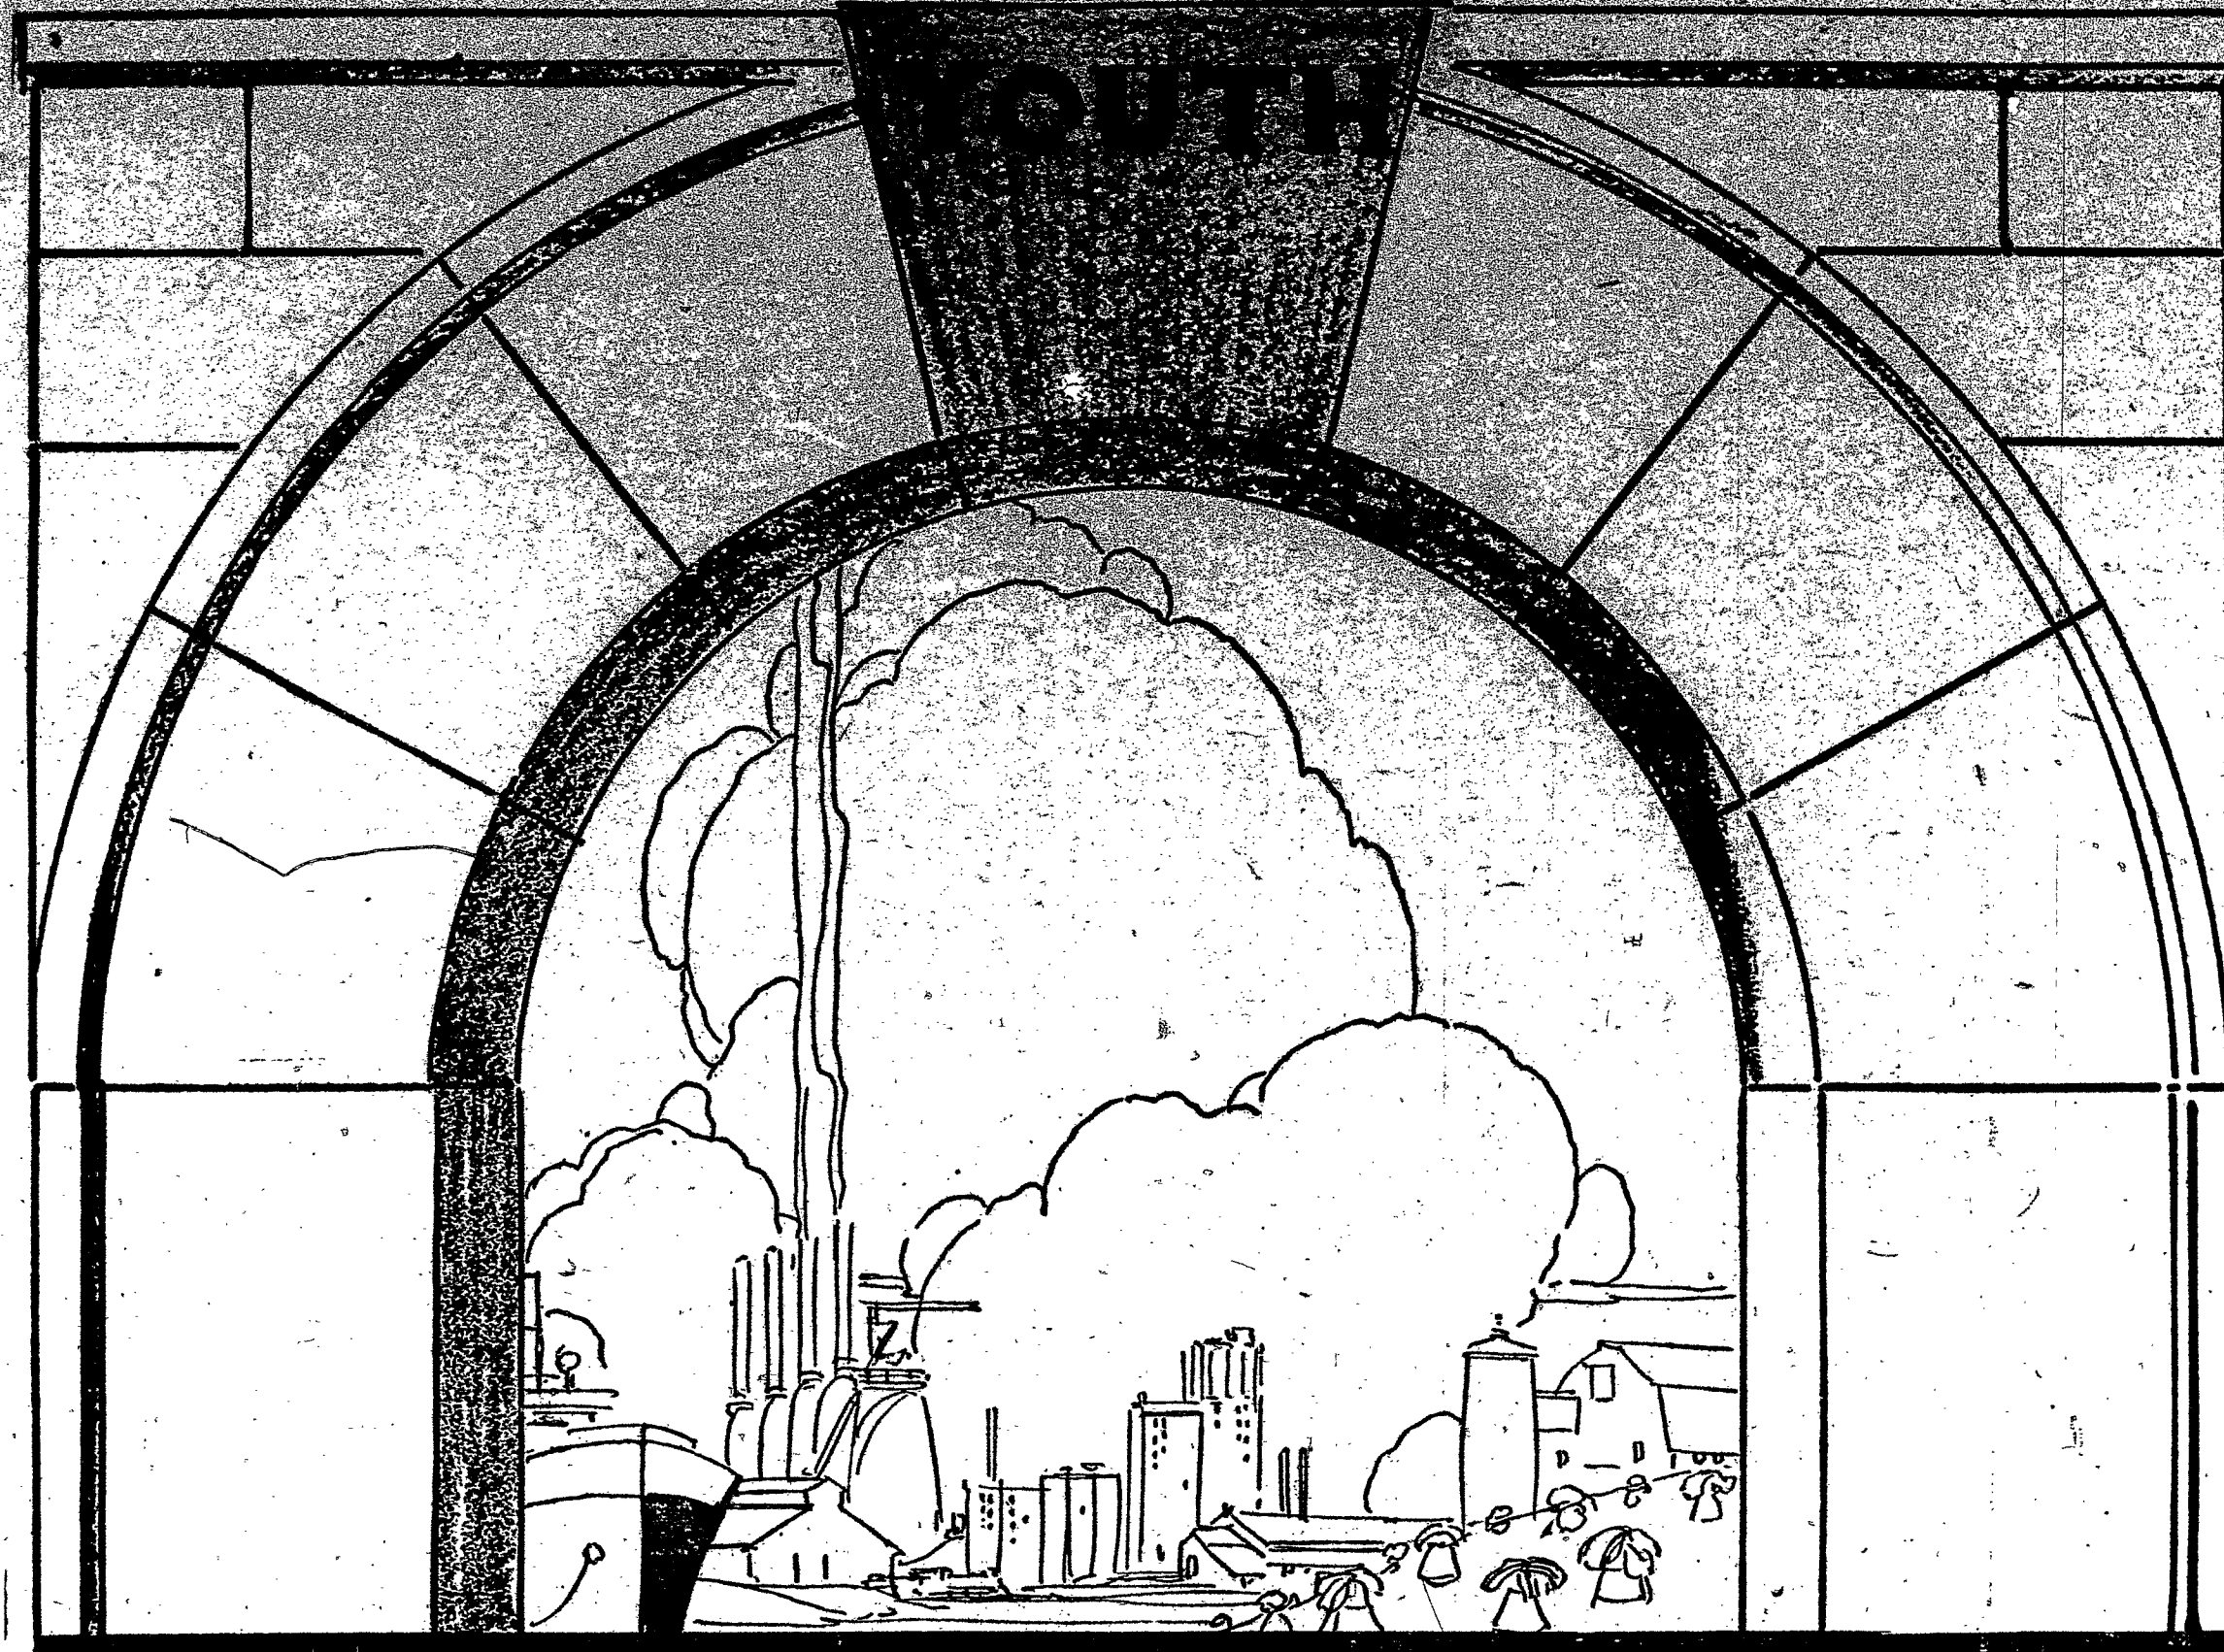

This expansion makes the service more valuable to every community and provides the entire Southeast with an unequalled modern system of quick communication.

COMMENT ON SPORTS

The difference between the National and American league races can be visualized when you recall that on day last week only 136 points separated the first and sixth teams in the older circuit while on the same date in the junior league from the winners separated the Yankees 144 points. This was the third time that the gap had opened up, and something over 400 points were between them and the sixth team.

The Yankees begin to give indications of making another runaway race in the American league. The Athletics, it is true, have a chance as it stands today but unless there is a shortening of the gap before there are many weeks of play the odds will be almost insurmountable. Both of these teams have power and defense. Cleveland may come into the fight vigorously and the two contenders may successfully break through the Yankee grip but to do so they will have to display a better strength when they tackle the Yankees.

About the only way the American league can be kept a race is for the Athletics and the Indians to beat the Yankees whenever they clash. Here, the millions of Miller Huggins have exhibited a startling manner of disposing of their rivals in hand-to-hand fights when the battle became hot and the standing was close. If the other teams want a look-in in the American race they must demonstrate their ability to go to death's grip with the Yankees and beat them.

In the National league, we have one of the prettiest races that the magazines could imagine. Teams are closely bunched and every one of the gang, except Boston and Philadelphia, it seems, has a chance. Moreover, given good going, any of the other six teams have the necessary stuff to stay in front of the pack. The National race is an ideal one, except for the fans of Boston and Philadelphia.

Babe Ruth continues to win ball games by the expedient of knocking the ball over the fences and stands. He is ahead of his last year's home run record and out in front of the field. The Babe is a remarkable batter. Some people recall when he was a remarkable pitcher.

Walter Hagen came through in great style in England, where he recovered from after the terrific lambasting put on him by Archie Compston, and won the British open. This was the third time that he had done the trick, and the idea in Great Britain, is that Americans are winning the cup entirely too often. Seven out of the last eight years have seen the title come back across the Atlantic.

Baseball Game Sunday.

A game of baseball that had been scheduled by Bro. Peter, President of St. Stanislaus College, for last Sunday between the Algiers' team and the Rockchaws, was postponed on account of the speed boat races that were to be the attraction on that day.

As is well known, the weather was too bad for any sports last Sunday, consequently there was nothing doing in the entertainment line, the speed boat races were postponed for Sunday, May 27th.

Bro. Peter, when interviewed on the subject, said he was very sorry, but he could not put the Algerians off to a farther date and would be obliged to have the baseball game on schedule time on the 27th.

Those who do not care for boat races will find it very entertaining out at the Stanislaus stadium between 3 and 5 o'clock p.m. when two very good teams will wage battle on the diamond.

FROM MEMPHIS SAYS MISS. DAIRYING STATE

Finds State Getting Another Substantial Boost By Increase Electric Power.

Geo. R. Rea, president of the Merchants Bank and Trust Company, and Leo W. Seal, vice-president and cashier of the Hancock County Bank of Bay St. Louis, have returned from Memphis where they attended the annual joint meeting of the Mississippi and Tennessee Bankers Association and report an interesting meet, with a larger number of Mississippi bankers present than in previous years. The Coast was well represented at this meeting, the two Bay St. Louis banks, the Hancock County Bank of Long Beach and Pass Christian, through Mr. Rea and Mr. Seal, the three Gulfport banks, the two Biloxi banks and the Pascagoula bank.

The meeting brought forth a number of interesting features and demonstrated particularly the many things which the Mississippi has accomplished in the past few years, Mr. Rea said. He spoke of the reports heard at the meeting which showed the boost which dairying in North Mississippi is bringing to the whole state, calling attention to the pay rolls which the four condensed milk plants, the eleven cheese plants, the thirty-one creameries, the six skimmer milk plants, the six butter milk plants, the sixty-one ice cream plants, the one semi-solid butter milk plant, six whole milk shipping stations, five whole milk distributing, bring the state. The second boost he found for the state at the meeting was the increase of hydro electric power over Mississippi, this coming from Louisiana and North Alabama, and the advance in the spread of power use during the past year makes the outlook wonderfully fine, Mr. Rea said. While the meeting was in session word came that President Coolidge had signed the flood control bill and the whole convention greeted this news with acclamation, he said.

One of the outstanding speakers at the convention was T. R. Preston, of Chattanooga, president of the American Bank and Trust Association of the Hamilton National Bank of Chattanooga.

It is said by observant ones that this spring season has witnessed more flowers on the Mississippi Gulf Coast than ever, in fact, it is said to be without precedent. No one place has been more successful than any other. Bay St. Louis has had its share of Bermuda lilies, roses and all of the grandiflora specimens that bloom this time of the year. Many thoughtful growers have sent liberal bunches of different flowers to the Echo office, all of which is appreciated and the attention and courtesy given every thanks. Flowers to the living, indeed, are welcome at all times.

A tall stem of a bud of the century plant is rearing itself in one of the large plants in the lawn of St. Joseph's Academy and in a few weeks the plant will be in blossom, some fifteen feet above the ground. This strange plant which gains its name from its slow habit of bloom is grown well in this section and though it does not take a century for one to bloom, yet it does take from ten to fifteen years for a plant to produce flowers. The blossoms are of a small yellow character and peculiar in form and growth. The plant is said to be native to Mexico and is closely related to the cactuses of the west.

CITY ECHOES

Mrs. E. E. Ashcroft, teacher in Central school, has returned from a week-end visit to her husband in Helena, Ark.

Mrs. J. T. Parrillo and son, J. T. Jr., have returned to their home in Des Moines, Ia., after visiting Mrs. Parrillo's mother, Mrs. O. Payard.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Piccola, returned over from New Orleans Sunday and were guests of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. R. de Montluzin, at their home on the beach front.

Mrs. Charles Zarr has returned to her home in New Orleans, after spending a few days in Bay St. Louis visiting relatives and friends, the house guest of her sister, Miss Geraldine Ames, and aunt, Mrs. Gaspard.

Miss Kathleen Canon, student of the Baptist Bible Institute of New Orleans, is a visiting Misses Ruth and Elsie Day for an indefinite stay, before making a trip to the Baptist World Alliance in Toronto, Canada.

Miss Gertrude Partridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Partridge, had as her week-end guests a group of attractive young girls, including Misses Lydia and Georgia Penn, Robert Blouin and Zoe Shail, cross, all of New Orleans, and Miss Ione Carty, of Bay St. Louis. A number of impromptu good times were planned for the young folks who spent a very pleasant week-end.

Mrs. Frank J. Ladner, accompanied by Mrs. Favalier, have been spending a while in Bay St. Louis and returned to New Orleans a few days ago. Mrs. Ladner, a former resident of this city, has numerous friends who welcomed her in more than ordinary sense, glad to have her again in their midst. The ladies were guests of Mrs. Nina Ladner, in Hancock street.

Joseph O. Mauffray and H. U. Carty spent Wednesday at Pascagoula and entertained the Rotary club luncheon and meeting at that place, visiting the new community house, recently completed and formally opened last week. The gentlemen were enthusiastic over the prospects of things in that section of the Mississippi Gulf Coast and praised the Rotary club and its management—a live bunch in a live city.

Mrs. Luther M. Ansley left Saturday for Denver, Col., called to that city by a message announcing the death of Mrs. Luther M. Ansley, Jr., who gave up her life that afternoon, might live, passing away as a result of septic pneumonia as an indirect result. She is survived by her husband and four small children. Mrs. Ansley might bring the children to Bay St. Louis. The deceased, accompanied by her husband and children of that time, were visitors to Bay St. Louis last summer.

One of the brightest spots in the Bay to business people is the lobby of the Merchants Bank and Trust Company where George R. Rea's lovely ferns add a pleasing touch of greenery. There are two handsome specimens of the spenser fern, one length and a large central box of Ostich and Boston fern is very pretty. Other potted plants are found about the lobby. The impression upon entering this lobby is that of going into one's own home and the effect is charming.

Last Sunday's scheduled outdoor motor boat races attracted many week-end visitors to Bay St. Louis, an unusual number. The Weston Hotel carried a long list of names on its register and the house was correspondingly full. Many correspondents, wide-awake and progressive, was equal to the occasion and had an orchestra during the Sunday hours discoursing music for the entertainment of guests—doubly entertaining since the visitors were by force of inclement weather compelled to remain in doors.

OLD MARINE HOSPITAL AT NEW ORLEANS TO BE REPLACED BY NEW

Structure to Cost Two Million—To Accommodate 500 Patients.

Construction of the Port of New Orleans' newest facility, the $2,000,000 Marine Hospital group at Henry Clay Avenue and the River will begin in the fall, according to information received by Major W. C. Rucker, surgeon in charge of the institution here. The new hospital was recently authorized by Congress.

Plans, according to Major Rucker, are to have the hospital face the river with the entrance, and an attractive approach placed on State street.

It will require about two years to complete the new hospital and have it in operation, Major Rucker states. The early style of New Orleans architecture will be followed in the buildings. Accommodation for 500 patients will be provided. The administration, mess and hospital will be the three main buildings of the group.
